Ghent, October 2017

Dear Drugs Peace Institute,
Dear Adriaan Bronkhorst,

It is with great pleasure that we took notice of your actions to nominate both the Huichol people of Mexico and the Cannabis Social Clubs (CSC) for the 2019 Nobel Peace Prize.

By proudly accepting this nomination we can confirm you our adherence to the principles of supply follows demand, non-profitability, transparency, healthy use and openness to dialogue with the authorities, set forth by ENCOD and to its Code of Conduct.

Being born on the 1st of October 2017 our club is the youngest member in the Belgian Cannabis Social Club family, and initiatives like this confirm the steps we are taking.

While the world today seems more and more intolerant towards free-thinkers, it is my firm belief that activism will lead to a greater understanding and more compassion in the end.

Power to the Flower!

Kind Regards,
